

Great artist from all over the world will come to tzfat to play at the 22 klezmer festival an international celebration of soul Jewish music at tzfat - famous artists will join the 22 international klezmer festival at tzfat

The Festival who will take place between 10-12 of August, is expected to be one of the great tourist targets in Israel. Fee artists and ensembles already confirmed their participation, among them some who will preform in Israel for the first time

Within the international groups who will come, there are two which are very important, from France and Germany. Trio Klezele from paris (in translation « the three klezmers ») - a very important and distinguished french group who gives a preformance in Israel for the first time, the group includes three well known musicians who are award winners of international competitions.

The musicians share their love to the klezmer music and are about one of the great attractions of the festival.

Tzfat newspaper of the festival (June 11 2009)